

Election Activity organized in 2009- Announcement published in the former on line Globe North

Nekita Lamour, former Ward 5 City Council candidate, is organizing a faith-based civic education seminar Saturday in Malden.

“The Electoral Process from a Christian Perspective” will be presented using PowerPoint in English, French, and Haitian Creole from 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday December 5ht at the Grace Church of God, 257 Pearl St.

“It will be a trilingual night of civic learning, voter registration drive, and spirituality,” said Lamour in an e-mail.

Music will be provided by Rev. David Horst from Malden/Saugus First Parish Unitarian Universalist, personal wellness coach Kenny Hyde, and Ersnt St. Cine, saxophonist from Somerville.

A donation of $10 is suggested for adults, $5 for children over 8.

For more information, contact Lamour.